

AUSTRALIA OFFERS HOME TO BELGIANS

TWO THOUSAND TO RECEIVE
FREE TRANSPORT TO NEW SOUTH WALES

(By Associated Press.)

SYDNEY, Australia, April 15.—Hope that expatriated and distressed Belgians may yet be induced to settle in Australia, notwithstanding the adverse attitude of the Belgian government, was voiced in a statement made recently at a meeting here of the Millions club by Percy Hunter, director of the New South Wales immigration bureau. Mr. Hunter, whose headquarters are in London, said that the proposed transplanting of Belgians to the commonwealth was raised immediately upon its becoming apparent that there would be a large number of Belgians who in consequence of the war would be unable to earn their living. The New South Wales government offered to take 2,000 of them, transport them passage free to this state, maintain them here and return them passage free to their homes in Belgium after the war if they desired; and it also offered to bring here a considerable number of young Belgian women and widows with children who might find situations as domestic servants. Though these schemes had failed because the Belgian government had determinedly refused to sanction them, he believed that some arrangement to the end desired might eventually be made.

WILL CUT OUT MIDDLEMEN

Some of the heaviest wool growers about Winnemucca have decided that they will not sell to the wool buyers that regularly visit this state, but instead will ship the entire clip to Boston and have it sold by brokers. This is an innovation for the wool growers in this state, but if it helps to secure something nearer the real market value of the product it will be a good move.

WOOL PURCHASED BY AMERICAN WOOLEN CO.

The Elko Free Press says: We are informed from reliable sources that this season's clip of wool belonging to W. T. Jenkins, George Williams and Art Keddle, were sold yesterday and while the price is not made public we understand it is above 20 cents.
